SISTERHOOD

Bargains galore will be offered to the public at the second annual bazaar to be given by the Gardena Valley Jewish Center Sisterhood, 14725 S. Gramercy Pl., on Sunday, March 31, beginning at 10 a.m. and lasting throughout the day.

A variety of merchandise will be offered, including clothing, household goods, novelties, bakery goods, and other items. There will also be booths of games for children and adults, and food will be sold all day.

All members and friends of the organization are urged to come and bring their friends and neighbors. There will be no admission charge. The bazaar is open to the public.

TO SEE PLAY

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rhone and David, are planning to go to Pasadena, Saturday evening, where they will join friends to see Edward Everett Horton's play, "All for Mary."

Sepulveda

On Saturday morning, March 30, between 9 and 11 a.m. the Sepulveda PTA will hold a "second cup of coffee" get-together at El Retiro Park. A small admission will be charged. All parents are urged to attend and get acquainted. This meeting was announced at the regular PTA meeting by Mrs. Jean DeGutes, third vice president.

AMARANTH WILL ELECT OFFICERS

Officers for the ensuing year will be elected by the members of Lomita Court 61, Order of Amaranth, at the meeting to be held in Torrance Masonic Temple this evening, March 28.

Preceding the meeting the members will participate in a potluck dinner. Royal Matron Gladys Motherell states the dinner hour is 6:30 p.m. and invites members to attend. Honored Lady Audrey Bacon will provide coffee.

P T A ACTIVITIES

Madrona

"Health" was the topic at the meeting of the Madrona PTA held March 20 in the dining patio at the school. Mrs. Lunetta Friedman and her third grade class presented a play on health. A movie entitled "Dr. Spock — From Birth to 10 Years" was shown. Miss Catherine Fitzgerald, school nurse, was present to answer the parents' questions concerning health.

New officers for the coming year elected were: Mrs. R. L. Hagenbaugh, president; Mrs. Eric Wescomb, first vice president; Mrs. Nicholas Fedoruk, second vice president; Mrs. Glenn Keller, third vice president; Mrs. R. M. Stewart, recording secretary; Mrs. William M. McDade, treasurer; Mrs. R. W. Bishop, historian; Donald Ronnie, auditor, and Mrs. A. U. Turner, parliamentarian.

Tuesday, April 2, was announced as the date of the paper drive. Carl Ahee, principal of Torrance High, will speak to the parents of eighth graders at the April meeting.

Narbonne

Election of officers and an interesting program outlining the recreation facilities for Lomita and Harbor City boys and girls high-lighted the Narbonne PTA meeting held last week in the Little Theater at Narbonne High School.

Elected to serve as president for the next year was Mrs. John Blackmen with the following new officers: Mrs. Ed Holloway, first vice president; Mrs. Ruth Ware, second vice president; Mrs. Virgil Burnett, secretary; Mrs. H. G. Cotton, treasurer; Mrs. T. C. Myron, auditor and Mrs. C. L. Wilson, historian.

Participating in the program entitled "Pathways to Recreation" was Ray Stalmack, recreation director of Wilmington playground who spoke on the proposed plans for the Harbor Park. Stalmack stated that so far all plans are unofficial but they hope to include a golf course, ball parks, boat house, boating and small craft training.

Speaking for recreation facilities offered at Narbonne High School was Joseph Langan, science instructor. He stated that a staff of eight teachers work all year on recreation utilizing both gymnasiums, boys and girls play fields, tennis courts and outside basketball courts. An intramural sports program is carried on during the school term from 4:30 to 6 p.m. The gym and play fields are on every Saturday from 10 to 5 and on Sundays from 12 to 5. Sports nights are held every Friday night featuring games and dancing. A total of 3835 boys and girls participated in the sports program during the month of February alone.

Bridal Party Is Given for Miss Larson

Miss Diane Larson, whose wedding to Don Jensen will take place on June 29, was complimented at a surprise shower Tuesday evening, March 19. Hostesses for the party were Mrs. Betty Vogel and Mrs. Winifred Ruppel.

The Vogel home at 1614 Madrid was beautifully decorated in a bridal theme. A heart-shaped white cake, ruffled in blue and white and holding a miniature bride, was the centerpiece. Also on the table was a sheetcake decorated with wedding bells and doves surrounded by spring flowers.

Several games were played after which the bride-elect opened her gifts. The hostesses then served refreshments. Attending the party were Meses. Lillian Blackman, Esther Larson, Audrey Colyar, Mildred Treat, Helen Hutslar, Mickey Drake, Wilma Johnson, May King, Faye Foster, Effie Morrison and Miss Joan Blackman.

Others sending gifts, but unable to attend, were Meses. Marion Crain, Birdie Winslow, Jean Enis, and Sally Dawes.

Lioness Club

North Torrance Lioness Club will hold a business meeting on Monday, April 1, at 7:30 p.m. at the Tijuana restaurant, 1035 Redondo Beach Blvd.

The president, Mrs. Maxine Holts, urges all members to attend this meeting at which Mrs. Olive Hunter will be the hostess.

The door prize winner at the last social meeting was Mrs. Bonnie Nobbe, publicity chairman.

All ladies whose husbands are members of the North Torrance Lions Club are eligible and are invited to join the Lioness Club. They may call Mrs. Thelma Chambers, vice president.
